STATEMENT

Processing of personal information pursuant to Legislative Decree 196/03 - complete statement

The code provides that the person concerned must be informed about the use of data relating to him/her, and that the processing of personal data is permitted only with the express consent of the person concerned except as provided by law.

Purposes

Personal data is processed as part of normal activities for administrative and accounting purposes, to manage and document (including with videos, sound recordings and images), the participation in this event, and to promote and organise the training initiatives of the Consortium and other events, both in print and in electronic format, manually and/or using electronic or other automated means.

Nature of the data and consequence of the failure to disclose

Without the processing and disclosure of compulsory data for the purposes described above, it shall not be possible to provide the services and/or products requested, in whole or in part, to the person concerned.

Sensitive Data

Should the Consortium be in possession of sensitive information in relation to specific requests by the person concerned, the statement released shall also concern the processing of such data for the exclusive performance of said specific requests.

Should the Consortium be in possession of sensitive data by explicitly requesting it from the person concerned, the processing shall be subject to prior written consent.

Individuals and groups of individuals to whom personal data may be disclosed

Except for communications to individuals whose right to access the data is recognised by law or by order of Authority, the data may be disclosed to partners who contribute to the organisation of the event and may be released on corporate websites, brochures, publications and magazines in print and in electronic format, as well
